

AN OLD SUPERSTITION.

Turned Out of a Negro Congregation on a Charge of Using Love Powders.

SAVANNAH, Ga., May 22.—A case illustrating the tenacity with which colored people cling to superstition has just developed in Tattnall county. Henry Edwards, a young colored man of that county, who is well thought of by his white neighbors, became enamored of a colored girl across the line in Liberty county. The girl came to this city on a visit, and while here received a letter from her Tattnall lover, full of devoted sentiments. To make his letter more acceptable the swain had perfumed it. As soon as the odor reached the nostrils of the girl she conceived the idea that it was love powder. She returned home narrated the event to her father, who grew indignant and brought the matter up in church. The case was on trial Saturday, and the young man was required to acknowledge his sin and repentance, when his church membership would be restored to him. This he refused to do, stating that he knew nothing about witchcraft, whereupon the girl's father pulled off his coat and was about to chastise the offender when he was restrained. He has $100 with which he has retained a lawyer to prosecute the case in the courts.

CINCINNATI JOURNALISM

A New Daily Paper—It Will Begin Life About June 1—Its Politics a Thing of Mystery.

CINCINNATI, May 22.—Beginning June 1, the Cincinnati Ledger will be issued. It will be a two-cent afternoon daily, and will be issued in two editions, one at noon and one at 5 p. m. As to who will be its editor, and in whose political interest the paper will be published, if in anybody's, are matters which have not developed. There may be a hitch that will prevent its publication at the date given, but that it will be launched shortly is a fact which may be relied on. One thing is certain, the paper will not be connected in any way with any other paper in the city.

RAUM'S SUCCESSOR.

Walter Evans, of Louisville, Commissioner of Internal Revenue.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., May 22.—The appointment of Walter Evans, of Kentucky, to the vacancy in the office of Commissioner of Internal Revenue, caused by the resignation of Green B. Raum, gives great satisfaction to the Republicans of Kentucky. He has figured prominently in Kentucky politics, and led the forlorn hope, as candidate for Governor against Blackburn in 1879. He is recognized as an upright and efficient man. The Democrats here say that it is Mr. Arthur's first move toward a nomination for President, as this appointment secures the Kentucky delegation in the convention.
